

Family & Children Services
of Silicon Valley

Lets.
Lets erase the stigma.

Los Altos High School

Join us for a special screening and discussion!

No Kidding? Me, 2! stars award-winning actor Joe Pantoliano in his first documentary film. Join us for this exploration of the stigma associated with mental health concerns and how we can help everyone thrive.

Wednesday, March 12 - 7 pm
Los Altos High School Auditorium
201 Almond Avenue, Los Altos

Post-Film Q&A Hosted by FCS Silicon Valley

Maritza Henry, MFT

As FCS Silicon Valley's Director of School-Based Services, Maritza has extensive experience developing and implementing specialized services for children and youth with social-emotional and behavioral challenges. She conducts student mental health assessments, leads our Teen FAST (Families and Schools Together) Program, and supervises on-campus counseling programs. Maritza's areas of expertise include trauma and blended families.

David Sitzer, PhD

With over 20 years of experience working with children, teens and their families, David, a clinical psychologist, specializes in pediatric anxiety and depression. As clinical director of FCS Silicon Valley's Counseling Program, he maintains an active, highly-regarded clinical training program, provides individual and family therapy, and participates in local initiatives to support adolescent and veterans' mental health needs.

No cost to attend. For more information, please visit www.fcservices.org or contact Sarah Bennett: sbennett@fcservices.org, 650.543.5412.